

I want it clear that I feel the current FCC rules regarding ownership are at the least barely sufficient, and that any changes to further deregulate ownership would negatively affect the public's ability to know what is really going on in the world. I feel too much exceptions have already been made with the mergers that have recently been allowed between corporate giants, and the radio stations. Please, the airwaves DO BELONG TO THE PUBLIC!!!! Stop selling them outright.